Subject: Issuance of licenses under Schedule II of the Aircraft Rules, 1937

DGCA conducts theoretical examination for the issue of Pilot Licenses. Upon meeting the requirements of age, qualification, knowledge, experience and skill as laid down in the Aircraft Rules, 1937, the candidate applies to DGCA for issue of the license.

For submission of application for issuance of a pilot license, the applicant's attention is also drawn to the provisions of para 6.7 of CAR Section 7 Series B Part I, which lays down the procedure to be adopted in case there is a delay in conduction of examination(s) and/ or delay in declaration of result.
